NEW RIFLE RANGE TO BE BUILT FOR MARKSMEN ON WORK FARM.

Will Be of Regulation Style to Cost $300, and Will Equal Any Range in the State.

HAVE CONCRETE RIFLE PITS

With Disappearing Automatic Target, Marks of Local Marksmen Announced Today Shows Some Excellent Marksmen.

Company D is to have one of the finest rifle ranges in the State of Pennsylvania. It will be constructed at Leisnering No. 1 on the Davis Work farm and will be of the regulation style adopted by the Federal Government. Lieutenant Roy B. Ketter this morning announced that work on the range would begin very shortly and that it would be entirely completed and in use by next summer.

A lease has been taken by the State upon the property for the range, the rental being $95 a year. The construction of the range will cost $300, the officers and men contributing it out of their own funds, but they will receive the entire cost of it back out of the Federal appropriation. This appropriation amounts to $180 per year. The State appropriation is $100 and the two taken together will practically cover the cost of the construction of the range.

The range will consist of concrete firing pits, disappearing targets and other paraphernalia so that the marksmen can fire continuously and an exact record kept without approaching the target.

With the announcement that the new range was to be constructed Lieutenant Ketter also announced the standing of the marksmen, which indicates that there are some excellent shots in Company D. There are upwards of 50 qualified men, who during the season of 1908 made good records that indicate there will be many go in higher classes next year.

There are four grades as "Marksmen," "First Class," "Second Class" and "Third Class," and the standing of the men are as follows:

CITIZENS COMPLAIN OF HAVING NO WATER

Residents of Prospect Street Have Been Without Water for the Past Week.

The residents along Prospect street are up in arms against the treatment they receive while the street is being paved. They have been without water for just one week from today and they do not know when the service will be restored.

The Street Committee of Council has been appealed to, but nothing has resulted from that. Contractor Bernard O'Connor disclaims responsibility for the situation and Superintendent J. D. Stillwagon of the water company declares it is not his fault.

The water line was torn up when the street was plowed for grading and since that time the only water the people along the street have had is what they get in Armstrong's stable. They are hauling it in buckets or any other receptacle. Three families along the street are suffering from the enforced drouth.

"BITTER WINE" INTOXICANT.

Continental Foreigner Jailed for Selling It.

Miko Poronky of Continental, was arrested yesterday by Constable Judson Slater, charged with selling liquor illegally. Many complaints were heard of the liquid sold by Poronky and an investigation developed the fact that it contained a large percentage of alcohol. The liquid was sold under the name of "Bitter Wine" and Poronky did a thriving business. No time for a hearing has been set.

RAILROADER AND MINER PATIENTS AT HOSPITAL

Former Forgets to Dodge a Bridge and Miner is Victim of Premature Explosion.

Two new patients are at the Cottage State Hospital. Charles W. Brinkman, of Youngwood, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, has a slight scalp wound as the result of an accident with which he met yesterday afternoon. Milliron was standing on a box car and while the train was going at a good speed through Athens he forgot to dodge an overhead bridge and as a result he sustained the injury to his head. He expects to leave the hospital this evening.

As the result of a slight premature explosion of dynamite in the W. J. Kallney mines at Mt. Braddock, yesterday morning, Michael Furetti, an Italian aged 35 years, is at the hospital suffering from burns about the face, eyes and chest. His condition is not serious.

JOHNSON CONFESSES TO BEING A BIGAMIST

Police Have Searched for Him Many Years Before He Landed in California.

United Press Telegram.
SAN JOSE, Cal., July 13.—Christian Johnson, arrested and sentenced to seven years for bigamy, from whose wives all over the country the police have been hearing since his incarceration, today made a confession acknowledging he is Clark Morrison, the bigamist, for whom the police in many cities have been searching for years. He said he married so many women he cannot remember the number and said his object was entirely mercenary. He got as much money from each as possible and then decamped. The total amount of money secured in this way, he says, was over $5,000.

CELEBRATE FINISH.

Talbot & Company Have Concrete Work on Big Lock Done.

BROWNSVILLE, July 13.—Talbot & Company yesterday finished the concrete work on the big new lock along the Monongahela river yesterday and last night celebrated the event by setting off a big display of fireworks. In its construction it required 60,000 cubic feet of cement work.

Fayette Veterans' Reunion.

UNIONTOWN, July 13.—The time of the annual reunion of the Fayette County Veterans' Association tonight was fixed at a special meeting of the committee. Thursday, October 7, is the date selected. General O. O. Howard will be the principal speaker. Many Pittsburg and Allegheny county veterans are members of the local association.

Lightning Strikes Signal Box.
Lightning striking a West Penn signal box in front of the Titlow Hotel last night created consternation there.

Threatened Drouth Broken But Warm Weather Remains With Us.

The threatened drouth seems to be broken even if the hot weather is still here. During the night came copious showers which filtered through the hard-baked ground and refreshed the parched vegetation. The farmers are taking a more cheerful view of the situation and believe that crops have a good chance of being up to the standard. The truck gardeners, including those of town who have their little patches of vegetables, are also enthusiastic over the prospects. A local shower blew up in a few minutes yesterday evening and caught some who had failed to carry an umbrella. It was followed by an electrical display but no damage resulted. The mercury this morning registered 72 degrees, four lower than yesterday morning. Last evening it was 84. The clouds rolled away yesterday afternoon and the sun shone bright and clear as it had done for several weeks past. The drizzle this morning continued until well into the morning while the bursts of sunshine were rare.

WANTED MAN BACK.

Maria Colom Does Not Think Wife Has a Right to Him.

UNIONTOWN, July 13.—On information of Maria Colom charging adultery James Verraz was arrested yesterday and placed in jail. Verraz took up with the Colom woman about two years ago and they lived together at Seagriffs, two children coming to them during that time. A few days ago Mrs. Verraz came from over the seas and when she made her appearance, Verraz deserted the Colom woman and rented a house with his wife. Then the trouble started which resulted in the man's arrest.

FREIGHT TIED UP SAY THE STRIKERS.

Report for Yesterday Was That No Freight Went East on B. & O.

SAY STRIKEBREAKERS DESERT

Also That the Men in the Local Shops Are Dissatisfied With Food and That Camp is in an Unhealthy Condition. Company Denies It.

The morning bulletin from the Baltimore headquarters has caused unusual confidence among the striking machinists of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad here. The men say they are gaining ground rapidly every day. The bulletin sent out from Connellsville last night was to effect that no freight trains were sent east because of lack of motive power. The Cumberland strikers say it is taking three engines to haul the Pittsburgh accommodation over the mountains.

The principal tenor of the report was to effect that desertions among the strikebreakers is of daily occurrence, some of the imported men refusing to work when they learned a strike was on while others quit, because the company here.

"That's the trouble here," said a striker this morning. "The men are getting food that isn't fit to eat and the camp cars are very unsanitary. The Board of Health should investigate conditions at the machine shops of the company here. All of these reports are denied by the company. The officials say that the reports of engine failures are grossly exaggerated. Before the strike engines failed occasionally, and the proportion now, they say, is little, if any, higher than before the trouble. Three details of strikebreakers passed through Connellsville yesterday for Pittsburgh. There were 25 or 30 men in the party. The desertions here, it is said, average about 15 a day, but the supply seems inexhaustible. All of the Baltimore & Ohio passenger trains are making schedule time and the traveling public isn't much interested in freight movement even if the shippers are. Orders have been posted in Pittsburgh for engineers and firemen to watch all sidings closely for traces of malcontents who might try to wreck trains.

JEFFRIES SAYS HE WILL FIGHT JACK JOHNSON

After Winning Title He Will Turn It Over to White Man Who Must Never Fight a Negro.

United Press Telegram.
TORONTO, July 13.—James J. Jeffries, on his arrival here today, issued a statement denouncing the interview credited to him in which he said he could never get into condition and would not fight Jack Johnson, as a lie.

He declared he is rapidly rounding into form and intends to post a forfeit to fight Jack Johnson and after whipping him will turn the title over to some good white man on the promise he will never fight a black, so Jeffries will have never to re-enter the ring to reclaim the title for the white race.

VAN SWEARINGEN TO HEAR AUDIT.

Motion to Have Judge Ingraham Preside Is Overruled by Court.

THE CASE BEGINS TOMORROW

Session of Sentence Court is Held Today and Several Hear Their Fate. Bigamist Is Let Go on Paying Costs and Will Seek Divorce.

UNIONTOWN, July 13.—Judge Van Swearingen will preside over the audit of Judge Umbel's campaign account in spite of the efforts of the attorneys for the auditors to have the case tried before Judge Ingraham of Washington. Attorneys M. H. Stevenson of Pittsburgh and F. P. Rush and S. John Morrow of Uniontown presented the law of 1860 providing that when the President Judge is defendant in a proceeding, the President Judge of the nearest adjoining county shall preside.

The attorneys for the petitioners declared the case should be tried by a judge who was disinterested, but their motion was overruled by Judge Van Swearingen and the exceptions noted. Attorney M. H. Stevenson will assist the petitioners in the audit of Judge Umbel's campaign account.

A short session of sentence court was held this morning. George N. Green of Brownsville entered a plea of nolle prode to the charges of bigamy and perjury against him and was let off upon the payment of the costs. Eleven years ago he was married in Pittsburgh but his wife left him immediately. Two years ago he married again and shortly after heard from his first wife for the first time since she left him.

The second wife remained faithful to her husband and he will institute proceedings in divorce against the first one.

Minnie Clark of Wheeler was sent to Morganza for using a butcher knife on a small boy. She was convicted at the June term. Emanuel Kennedy, an alleged colored preacher, was sent to the workhouse for a year after pleading guilty to robbing the home of Walter Howell in Uniontown. Thomas Walker admitted receiving stolen goods in the shape of a mile or two of telephone wire and was sent to the workhouse for a year and six months. F. B. DeLoche of Connellsville pleaded nolle prode to the embezzlement charges against him and was given until September court to pay the costs. Turner Green, convicted of assault and battery, went to jail for 30 days; John Stenson was soaked the costs for dogging a board bill and Adolph Bassinger given 30 days to jail for assaulting his wife. Lizzie Horvitz of near Moyer was charged with incorrigibility and sent to Morganza. William Green, Jr., a 12 year old lad of Iverson, was sent home and his father notified to take care of him or he would be prosecuted. The Ladies Aid Society will take charge of Della Shirley, charged with a similar offense.

Charles Sweetlick, jailed for assault and battery, was released this morning. A habeas corpus hearing was held a week or so ago to gain him his freedom. Judge Umbel this morning ruled that the verdict in favor of Mattie Anderson for $5,000 and for her husband of $500 against the Pennsylvania railroad was excessive and directed a new trial unless the plaintiffs accept $2,300 and $400 within 15 days.

FIRE IN CELLAR.

Small Blaze in the Cunningham Building Quickly Extinguished.

A small fire was discovered in the basement of the Cunningham block along South Pittsburg street last evening. The cellar was filled with smoke when the firemen arrived and only hard work subdued the flames before great damage had been done. The blaze originated among a pile of barrels and other trash in the basement, but no fire had been near the corner for months. The cause of the fire is a mystery.

Mine Fire Extinguished.

WASHINGTON, Pa., July 13.—The fire which has been raging in Mine No. 4, of the Vesta Coal Company, at California, this county, since Saturday morning, was got under control today. The efforts to drown out the flames were a failure and their further progress was finally checked by the completion of brick bridges. It is probable the work at the mines will be prevented for fully a month.

Didn't Hurt Him.

J. B. Hyde, a one-legged man, of Pittsburg, fell from a West Penn trolley car on Connellsville street, Uniontown, and was uninjured.

HOLD CONVENTION HERE.

Electrical Workers Will Meet Here First Week in January.

A convention of the Electrical Workers Association will be held in January at Connellsville. Paul T. McDonald arrived home last night from a district convention at Sharon, where it was decided to have the next meeting in Connellsville. There will be about 150 delegates, and the meeting will be held the first week in January.

Mr. McDonald was elected a delegate to the international convention of the association which meets in Springfield, O., in September.

JOINT ROUTE FOR DELIVERY OF MAIL.

Congressman Cooper Is Trying to Hurry Postoffice Department

GIVE "HILL" DISTRICT SERVICE

In Connection With the Town Service a Free Delivery Arrangement May Be Made—Inspector May Be Here in a Few Days.

Congressman Cooper is working hard to have the free delivery service of Connellsville extended to the "Hill" district of the West Side. Upon leaving Connellsville last week to attend the sessions of Congress, he met E. H. Fort, Superintendent of City Delivery, on the train and talked the matter over with him at length. Later Mr. Cooper called up the Postoffice Department and urged the officials there to act as promptly as possible in the matter. From what Mr. Cooper can learn, it is possible that a joint route may be made in connection with the rural free delivery service which serves the community west of Connellsville.

It is thought an inspector will be in Connellsville within a few days to go over the matter. In a letter to John Duggan this morning Congressman Cooper states that he realizes the inconvenience to which the residents of the "Hill" district have been placed and will use every effort to hurry the matter along.

The postal authorities here do not know anything about the matter officially, and have learned nothing exact that which has been published. It was stated at the postoffice this morning that the inspector has not arrived and there is no knowledge that he is on his way here.

Clark in the alleged embezzlement of funds from the Enterprise National Bank, left the penitentiary this morning free man. His sentence was commuted by President Taft. He was sentenced for five years and served eighteen months. He is the third of those convicted to receive executive clemency in the Enterprise case. He was sentenced victimized by Clark, who suicided.

Went to Borrow Pepper for Sunday Dinner and Got a Beating.

On a charge of assault and battery, Mrs. Mary M. Hoskins, colored, of Leisnering No. 1, was given a hour yesterday afternoon before Squire F. M. Buttermore, of the West Side, and held for September term of court. Mrs. Hoskins gave bail pending her hearing. The information was made by Robert Calloway, also of Leisnering No. 1, and colored. Attorney F. E. Younklin appeared for the defendant. Last Sunday Calloway went to the Hoskins home to borrow some pepper to season the Sunday dinner. If ap-

A SPECIAL TRAIN FOR COKE WORKERS

P. V. & C. R. R. Will Run It Between Brownsville and Uniontown to Accommodate the Klondike.

A special train will be installed on the P. V. & C. railroad from Brownsville to Uniontown to accommodate the hundreds of men employed in the Klondike coke region. The train will leave Brownsville at 6:30 every morning arriving at Uniontown about 9 o'clock immediately going back to Brownsville, and in the afternoon come back to Uniontown and return to Brownsville, getting to the coke towns about the hour that the men quit work. The train is the outcome of petitions on the part of the coke companies, on account of many men not desiring to live at the works, but being glad to work there if afforded transportation from their homes.

The morning train from Brownsville will stop at Newcomer, Royal, Dute, Kelsner, Grindstone, Blumer and other stations to receive and discharge passengers and will be a great accommodation to thousands. On the regular train to Pittsburg over the Monongahela division, it is likely that some smaller stops will now be abandoned, thus reducing the running time.

REBELS SACK CITY OF TEHRAN; MANY DIE

They Seek The Shah, Who Is Harbored in Russian Legation, a Doomed Man.

United Press Telegram.

TEHRAN, July 13.—Rebels entered the capital this morning and are now advancing on the Shah's palace leaving the streets strewn with dead and dying. Persian Cossacks, who remained loyal to the Shah, were slaughtered by the rebels. The streets are barricaded but the rebels advanced after desperate fighting in several points of the city. The Shah is said to have taken refuge in the Russian legation but is not considered safe there and it is expected he will be put to death.

All foreigners in the city have taken refuge in the British and foreign legations. The invaders ravaged the homes of the wealthy, sacked the shops, shot down all who offered resistance. The death roll is large.

ASSAULTED WITH HATCHET.

Two Foreigners Arrested, Charged With the Attack.

Ell Borich and Mike Putzl were arrested yesterday charged with assaulting Mike Dorick with a hatchet. Dorick's injury is a painful but not serious one. The hearing has been postponed for several days by Justice John Boyle to ascertain the extent of the foreigners' injuries.

Arrested for Murder.

Minor Moore, aged 20 years, of Morgantown, was arrested yesterday charged with the murder of John Eddy, of Clay district. Eddy was found a few days ago in a field near his home.

AND THE EMANUEL MOVEMENT

Talk of Bringing Someone From New York to Fractise the Teachings of This Movement Where Doctor and Minister Work Together.

SCOTTDALE, July 12.—The ministers and physicians met yesterday to discuss their relationship in the sick room. The gathering was unique because the proposition is new to this section. It is only another example of how cordially Scottdale professional men work together.

The Ministerial Association has been in existence for several years and the heads of the various churches work together for the general good. The Physicians Round Table meets in regular sessions to exchange views and experiences. Yesterday's meeting was marked by a paper by Dr. L. T. Gilbert on the relationship of the doctor and minister in the sick room. The paper was carefully prepared and was an incentive for quite a spirited discussion in which it was made manifest that there was some division of sentiment among the doctors and ministers as to these matters. The Emanuel movement, which came up two weeks ago for discussion, gained the approval of both parties. This is not to be looked upon as along the lines of Christian Science or those cults. It is expected that an expositor of the Emanuel Movement will be brought here from New York to demonstrate and lecture on the subject. The principle of the movement, which is one of prayer and suggestion on the part of the minister, is that of accepting no case where a reputable physician is not in attendance and secondly accepting no case for this treatment where a functional disorder is present. The most of the physicians believed yesterday that prayer is of great aid in the successful treatment of many diseases, and they believed that the minister and physician can work together for great benefit in the treatment of the sick.

Dr. Gilbert asserted that no one but a trained physician could rightly judge a case. He conceded that anyone can "judge," but that the judgment of the one particularly trained to the work is the judgment naturally having the greater likelihood of being correct. The animated discussion that lasted for sometime made a decided impression upon both the spiritual and body healing professions and it is expected will lead to excellent results.

Among the physicians who were present were O. C. Engle, L. T. Gilbert, N. E. Sibley, J. P. Strickler and C. W. McKee of Scottdale and M. A. Noon of Everson. Among the ministers were Revs. R. E. Mansell of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, E. C. Kunkle of the First Baptist Presbyterian Church, N. E. Butner of the United Brethren Church, D. W. Michael of the Lutheran Church, J. L. Lichliter of the United Brethren Church, Archibald Ayld of the Methodist Episcopal Church of town, and W. H. Guyer of the Church of God of Alverton, J. S. Hayes of the United Brethren Church of Everson, and Ralph Bell of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Tarr.

All foreigners in the city have taken refuge in the British and foreign legations. The invaders ravaged the homes of the wealthy, sacked the shops, shot down all who offered resistance. The death roll is large.

ITALIANS CELEBRATE BIG DAY ON FRIDAY

Parade, Band Concert and Magnificent Fireworks at M. & S. Park in Evening.

The celebration among the Italians in honor of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, will be held here on Friday with impressive ceremonies. The Italians are planning an elaborate observance of this day among their countrymen.

In addition to the parade, the band concerts and the services in the Italian Church, efforts are being made to arrange some athletic contests in the ball park during the morning or just prior to the game with Grafton that afternoon. Umpire Bill Smink has volunteered to run in the fat men's race and other starters are in demand.

In Social Circles.

Brilliant Reception.
One of the largest and most brilliant social functions held here for some time was an elaborately appointed reception at which Miss Gertrude Madison was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on East Third view avenue in honor of her guest, Miss Alma Finch of Pennsylvania. The affair was marked by the handsome decorations and the smart grooming of the guests. A color scheme of pink, white and green was cleverly used in carrying out the decorations. The parlor where the reception was stationed was done in tastefulness, daintiness and ferns while the reception hall was in mountain laurel. Entertained behind a banking of laurel in the library Kitzinger's orchestra was seated.

The dining room presented a scene of great beauty. In the center of the table was a large bouquet of sweet peas with smaller bouquets of the same flower were placed at intervals on the table. Suspended from the chandelier which was entwined with Southern smilax was a shower of pink satin ribbon streamers attached to the ends of which were bouquets of sweet peas.

In the receiving line was the hostess, Miss Finch, Miss Blanche Madison, Miss Celia Morris and Miss Julia Joyce. Little Misses Adrienne Solson, Madeline Solson, Rennie Solson, Gertrude Solson and Louisa Madison acted in the duties of the little flower girls. Mrs. J. D. Madison, mother of the hostess, presided at the punch bowl. Refreshments were served throughout the afternoon. The out of town guests present were Miss Marcella Keller of Pittsburgh, the guest of Miss Cyrella Solson, Misses Julia Joyce and Celia Morris of Pittsburgh; Mrs. J. P. Kennedy, Mrs. J. P. K. Miller, of Scotland; Miss Mabel Witt and Miss Margaret McHugh of Uniontown. Tomorrow evening Miss Madison will give a luncheon to the Solson family in honor of her guest. On their arrival at the farm dancing will be the amusement.

At Crooked Lake they resorted two young men from Minneapolis from drowning. The young men joined the party and are now on their way to Kenora, Ontario. The boys are having a fine trip and are enjoying it immensely.

THAW CAUSED GUARD TO SWITCH HIS POLITICS

Other Evidence of His Sanity Presented at White Plains Hearing Today.

United Press Telegram.
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 13.—Witness after witness took the stand in the Thaw case today, making strong points for the defendant in his fight to prove his sanity and thus secure release from the asylum for the criminal insane. Otto Metz, keeper of the Tombs prison in New York, swore Thaw often discussed politics with him and changed him from a Bryan man to a Republican by quoting Alexander Hamilton.

Thaw looked the picture of good health and was affectionately greeted by his mother, former Countess of Yarmouth, his sister, and Mrs. Joseph Thaw.

Edward E. Havens a juror at the Peuchkeeps prison, said some days Thaw received as high as a hundred guests and always acted perfectly rational. William Smith, the millionaire cough drop manufacturer, said he visited Thaw three times and had prolonged conversations over politics, religion and economic subjects. Thaw was always rational. Evelyn has not yet been called.

FIRST REAL CLUE IS SECURED IN SIGEL CASE

Arrest of Two Girls Gives Police Some Definite Information Which May Be Valuable.

United Press Telegram.
NEW YORK, N. Y., July 13.—The first tangible clue ever obtained by the police in the murder of Elsie Sigel followed the arrest today of two young girls, Sadie Brodie and Fannie Miller, on information given by a Chinese spy which connects the girls with the murder of Yung Yow, who was found strangled to death in a wash tub July 1.

The police are working on the theory the girls were used as decoys of white men who murdered Yung for his money. All are declared to be associates of the Chinamen who bought poison and drugs used to be near Leon Log's place the day of the murder of the Sigel girl.

Renewed activity of all detectives is following the arrest of the girls.

TWO GAMES TOMORROW.

Rain Results in Doubleheader Being Carded Against Fairmont Boys.

It is both an ill wind and an ill rain that blows good for no one, and the shower which put a quietus on this afternoon's game resulted in a big burgula bill with the Fairmont team tomorrow afternoon. The first game will be called at 2:15.

Manager Sweeney was anxious to play this afternoon but J. Pluvius wilted otherwise. Russell Morgan, the fast outfielder, joined the team this morning and will play in both games tomorrow. Billy Dunn is expected in time for tomorrow's game. Dunn went back to Clarksburg to get some money to him. If only enough to get out of town. He will be here sometime this week.

CONTRACT LET.

For the Building of an Addition To The Furnace School.

At a meeting of the Dunbar township building committee held last evening at R. J. McGee's store in Dunbar the contract for the building of an addition to the Furnace school was let to Crowe & Bunting of Dunbar.

There were five bids for the contract the Crowe & Bunting one being the lowest. The plan calls for a two room addition and construction of a balcony.

The estimated cost will be about $2,500 and $3,000. The improvements are to be completed in time for the commencement of school. All members of the committee were present with the exception of Thomas Logan.

FALLS INTO CELLAR.

Small Boy Had Narrow Escape From Serious Injury.

While playing with several of his companions last evening Joseph Parolia, aged seven years, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Parolia of South Pittsburgh street, had a narrow escape from being seriously injured.

The little fellow was playing in the rear of the yard when he stepped over the edge of the cellar way and fell a distance of about ten feet, landing at the foot of the stairs. He was unconscious for a short time. As the result of the accident he has a discolored eye, several scratches on the face, and a slight scalp wound.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.

Projected Line To Open Up Valuable West Virginia Land.

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 13.—Another railroad is to traverse the South Branch valley of the Potomac river, a New York syndicate having had completed a survey for a railroad 160 miles in length, to be built from a point on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad up Jackson river valley to the divide at Monterey, thence down the east bank of the South Branch of the Potomac, via Franklin, Petersburg and Mayersville, to Keyser, W. Va., on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The grade is an easy one and the road is projected to cross the counties of Bath and Highland, Va., and Pendleton, Grant, Hardy and Mineral, W. Va. Rights of way have been secured and the aggregate cost is placed at $7,000,000.

STOCK COMPANY MAKES BIG HIT LAST NIGHT

Excellent Audience Witnessed First Performance of The Carroll Comedy Company.

The Carroll Comedy Company opened its summer engagement at the Solson theatre last evening with "A Romance of Tennessee." The house was crowded downstairs, with a goodly number on the balcony, and the initial offering of the stock company was well received. There will be a matinee this afternoon.

"Tomorrow the 'Crimes of London' will be presented, while the third change of bill is to be made on Friday. The Carroll Comedy Company is above the average stock organization and will likely be well patronized.

In addition to the drama presented by the company, there are four good vaudeville numbers on the program. Carl Amad, a German comedian, kept the house in an uproar during his stay on the stage while Arnold and Gardner and Jack Murphy were good comedy entertainers. The house took well to Edna Clymer's illustrated songs.

With three changes a week the Carroll Company should make its stay in Connellsville both lengthy and pleasant.

TO TAP BIG COAL LANDS.

Final Surveys Being Made on Fom-bell-Barbers Station Road.

BUTLER, Pa., July 13.—Final surveys are being made for a railway line to connect Fom-bell, Beaver county, on the Baltimore & Ohio railway main line, and Grove City, Mercer county, on the Bessemer & Lake Erie railway, a distance of 30 miles. The proposed line, which is to be started this fall, crosses the Western Allegheny railroad at Barber's station, near Portersville, Butler county, 18 miles northwest of Butler, and leaves Slippery Rock one mile to the east. Back of the project is the Ellwood City Coal & Gas Company, and President Thomas Leggett of the Western Allegheny is said to be interested.

The purpose of the road is to tap extensive coal lands and limestone deposits, now undeveloped because of lack of railroad facilities. The Ellwood City Coal & Gas Company has taken options on 1,000 acres of coal land just south of Portersville in Butler county. A. C. Coleman of Pittsburgh has taken an option on 400 acres, and others have taken options on several thousand acres more.

A GREAT RECORD.

Dr. Leonard's Internal Pile Remedy Makes 98 Per Cent. of Cures.

Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid has been tested in several thousand cases, and was successful in all but two per cent.

Hem-Roid's wonderful record is due to the fact that it is an internal remedy. The cause of piles is internal, and it is too much to expect to cure piles with ointments, suppositories or operations. Hem-Roid cures the internal cause.

Teachers Are Examined From This Section—Lightning Display Was Very Vivid Last Evening—Short
Notes From the Mill Town.

SCOTSDALE, July 12.—Trouble fell heavily upon the household of Mr. and Mrs. Steward Ellenberger when their twin daughters, aged two months and eight days, passed away within a few hours of each other and were buried together in one grave, at Perryopolis yesterday. The one daughter died on Saturday and the other one who had been sick but a short time also passed away on Sunday. Mrs. Ellenberger, the mother, has been in poor health and the blow of the loss of the two little ones was a very severe one. The funeral went to Perryopolis in the morning and did not get back from the long drive until about 6 o'clock. Elijah Ellenberger, of Dunbar, the grandfather of the twins has been visiting in Scottdale for a few days. He is 83 years old and hale and hearty, and left Sunday afternoon and walked out to Wesley Chapel, three miles west of town, in spite of the heat of the afternoon, and said on his return that he felt very well.

Gone To Philadelphia.

Lightning Played Brilliantly.
Preceding the rain of last evening the most brilliant and continuous play of electricity, it is said, ever witnessed in this section took place, the entire sky lighting up continuously on every point of the compass. The storm, however, was not the violent one that was expected, but the rain fall was such as to do the greatest good to everything, and was repeated again this morning. The wheat cutting has been commenced about here, and there is yet some wheat to cut. Hay harvest has opened up in good shape.

PACKAGES PUT UP ON SPECIAL ORDER

Supplemental Defense Filed For Hughes & Delehunt, Wind-
ber Bottlers.

SOMERSET, July 12.—Attorneys George R. Scull and Charles W. Walker, counsel for Hughes & Delehunt of Windber, who hold the only bottler's license in Somerset county, filed an answer supplemental to the one published a few days ago, in reply to the rule to show cause why their license should not be revoked, recently awarded by the Court at the instance of N. B. Kyle, Superintendent of the Windber Brewing Company.

In the supplemental answer it is admitted that the respondents sell some liquor in the original packages as they receive them from manufacturers with whom they deal, and without making a physical transfer of the same but it is alleged that liquor disposed of in this manner is put up especially by the producer for the firm of Hughes & Delehunt.

GOES TO BOTTOM AFTER COLLISION.

Steamer John B. Cowie Carries Fourteen Down to Death.

LAKE VESSEL RAMMED IN FOG

On Her Maiden Trip Steamer Isaac M. Scott Crashes Into the Cowie, Tearing Big Hole in Side of Latter Vessel.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 13.—Three minutes after the steel steamers Isaac M. Scott and John B. Cowie had collided in Lake Superior about a mile and a half off Whitefish Point lighthouse the Cowie had gone to the bottom in fifty fathoms of water, carrying with her fourteen members of her crew. The Scott, although badly damaged about the bows, put back to this port, where she arrived with part of the crew of the Cowie.

A heavy fog was responsible for the collision. The Scott, a new boat on her maiden trip to the head of the lakes, had just passed the light at Whitefish Point and straightened out her course up the lake when suddenly the John B. Cowie loomed up through the fog, broadside on to the Scott and only a few feet away. The Cowie was downbound with 3,000 tons of iron ore in the hold.

The ships were so close that it was impossible to avoid a collision, and the Scott crashed into the side of the heavily laden Cowie. For fifteen feet the bow of the Scott penetrated the side of the Cowie. Tons of water rushed into the great opening and in three minutes the Cowie had settled to the bottom of Lake Superior.

Immediately after the collision a line was thrown from the deck of the Scott to the forward deck of the Cowie, and three members of the crew escaped to the deck of the up-bound boat by this means.

The rest of the crew who were saved jumped from the sinking steamer into the lake, some without life preservers, and were picked up by the Scott and the steamer Good-year, which was a short distance astern of the Scott when the collision occurred.

Victim of Annapolis Tragedy, His Mother, a Witness and Scene of the Inquiry.

While many of the marine and navy officers scout the idea that Lieutenant James M. Sutton was murdered, his mother, who after a two years' struggle succeeded in having a new investigation ordered, is certain that the inquiry which begins on July 19 at Annapolis will show that her son was the victim of a plot. Lieutenant Sutton was shot while returning to the marine barracks from Carvel Hall on the night of October 12, 1907. There is ample proof that he quarreled with one of his brother officers and that a short time after the quarrel he was shot through the head. Sworn testimony at the inquest was to the effect that he committed suicide. This most prominent witnesses are Lieutenants Edward A. Ostermann, Robt. B. Adams, Harold H. Utley, Ex-Lieutenant Ed. P. Hooker and Miss Mary Elizabeth Stewart. Miss Stewart is a resident of Pittsburgh and, according to Mrs. Sutton, was her son's fiancée. Lieutenant Sutton, it is said, had spent the evening with Miss Stewart and was returning to the barracks when the tragedy occurred. The Government officials have been trying to summon her to the inquiry, but she is reported to be in Canada, and it is doubtful if her attendance can be obtained. Mrs. Sutton is now at West Point, where another of her sons, who is a cadet, is recovering from injuries believed to have been received at the hands of hazing.

Constitutional Amendment Will Be Submitted to Them.

HOUSE CONCURS WITH SENATE

By Decisive Vote of 317 to 14 Lower Branch of Congress Passes Joint Resolution Submitting to Various State Legislatures the Question.

Washington, July 13.—It is now up to the legislatures of the several states to say whether there shall be an income tax amendment to the constitution.

By the decisive vote of 317 to 14, more than the necessary two-thirds, the house passed the senate joint resolution providing for the submission of the question to the states. "The negative votes were all cast by Republicans."

No amendment having been made to the resolution, it now goes to the president for his signature. Practically four hours were consumed in debating the proposition and this afforded many members, mostly Democrats, an opportunity to air their views. Chairman Payne of the committee on ways and means voiced the sentiment that such a tax would make "a nation of liars," although he said it was well that such power should be given congress, especially in times of war.

While favoring the amendment, Mr. Henry (Tex.) expressed the fear that it would suffer defeat if submitted to the legislatures. He desired to have the proposition submitted to constitutional conventions.

Mr. Bartlett (Ga.) shared in this view. The proposition, he declared, was a sham and designed to prevent the imposition of such a tax.

In a fiery speech in support of an income tax Mr. Robinson (Ark.) arraigned the Republicans for, as he charged, "foisting the people" before the next presidential election. He defended W. J. Bryan, declaring that he stood head and shoulders above any other man in private life today. He was pure and spotless, and yet, he said, the same Republican party that denounced Bryan as an anarchist was now appropriating his political thunder. "There are men here," he remarked, "who owe William J. Bryan an apology."

Mr. Robinson asked if any one present ever heard of a millionaire going to war, and if it was not a fact that the millionaires paid a substitute and then went into hiding. Mr. Dickema (Mich.) vehemently denied this charge. In his own state alone, he said, two millionaires—Treasury Secretary, former secretary of the navy, and James McMillan—had enlisted in the Spanish war. His Republican colleagues accorded him vociferous applause when he said that a man's patriotism was not measured by his poverty, but by his Americanism.

"I scorn," said Mr. James (Ky.) in favoring the resolution, "a government whose taxing power provides that Lazzarus shall share his crumbs, but that Dives must not give up his robes."

FLIGHT IS SUCCESSFUL

Orville Wright Greeted With Cheers At Fort Myer, Va. Washington, July 13.—Orville Wright made a very successful flight in the Wright aeroplane at Fort Myer, Va., remaining in the air 6 minutes and 30 seconds, during which time the machine attained the exceptional speed of about forty miles an hour and circling the parade grounds half a dozen times, a total distance of about three and a half miles.

After keeping a crowd of nearly a thousand expectant people, including a number of persons prominent in official life, waiting for an hour and a half on account of unfavorable wind conditions, the aeroplane started on its flight. The aviator concluded not to prolong the trial because the motor of the machine, which had just been repaired, was not working perfectly. Each time the aeroplane circled past the starting point the spectators cheered.

PRISON CHAPLAIN DEAD

Rev. Dr. Milligan Was With the Volunteers in Civil War. Newport, Pa., July 13.—Rev. Dr. John Linn Milligan, for forty years chaplain of the Western penitentiary, died last night at the residence of his brother-in-law, J. H. Irwin, after an illness of six months. He was seventy-two years of age. Dr. Milligan served as chaplain of the One Hundred and Fortieth Pennsylvania volunteers during the civil war and was chaplain of the Eighteenth regiment national guard. For thirty years he was stated clerk of the Allegheny presbytery and for eighteen years secretary of the National prison congress. He was president of the American prison congress in 1905.

College Students Murdered. Herington, Kan., July 13.—The bodies of two young men, believed to have been eastern college students who came west to work in the harvest fields, were found beside the railroad tracks near Ramona, west of here. The men are believed to have been murdered and their bodies placed on the track.

B. P. O. E. CONVENTION.

Thousands of Elks Assembled in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, July 13.—The City of the Angels is entertaining today thousands upon thousands of the "Best People on Earth." At any rate, so the members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks call themselves.

GARRY HERRMANN.

Jocularly, and the hospitable folk of Los Angeles, happy to welcome the throng of good fellows from all parts of the United States, are not inclined to dispute the claim.

The city is lavishly decorated with royal purple and white, the colors of the Elks, and countless representations of the elk's head and the clock with hands pointing to 11 are to be seen. The convention is the biggest in the forty years' history of the order.

The convention will remain in session three days, dispersing to send the delegates on excursions to Seattle, Colorado and other parts of the west. The main business will be the selection of next year's convention city and the election of officers. For the high position of grand exalted ruler of over 300,000 Elks there are two candidates—Garry Herrmann, the well known Cincinnati baseball magnate, and J. U. Sullis of Le Mars, Ia. Edward Leach of New York has no opposition for reelection as grand treasurer and is the candidate of the east and middle west for grand exalted ruler in 1910.

There is also no opposition to the reelection of Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson, who has held the office seven years. Detroit is in the lead as a candidate for next year's convention and Boston for the 1911 gathering.

TAX WILL BE LOWERED.

Reduction of One Per Cent Decided Upon.

Washington, July 13.—At a conference at the White House it was definitely decided that the rate to be levied under the new corporation tax shall be reduced from 2 per cent to 1 per cent and that in redrafting the measure now in conference, along with the tariff bill, to meet various objections that have been raised due consideration shall be given to the demands of the mutual life insurance companies whose incomes would be seriously affected by the tax in its original form.

President Taft was the central figure in a number of conferences and is living up to the prediction made many weeks ago that in the conference consideration of the tariff he would actively lend his influence in bringing about a conciliation of the differences between the two houses.

As to the mutual insurance companies, it is stated that the redrafted bill will provide what portion of the income may be deducted before the tax on monies available for dividend is assessed. It will be so arranged that the tax shall fall upon stockholders' profits, and allowances will be made for annuities and other long-term contracts which the companies have outstanding.

LANDSCAPE ADORNERS MEET

Convention of American Billposters Begins in Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—The state of Georgia, in the person of Governor Brown, and the city of Atlanta, represented by Mayor Maddox, extended a welcoming hand today to the men who decorate the landscapes of the United States and Canada with the bills extolling the merits of various makes of pills, automobiles, breakfast foods and everything else.

Hundreds of delegates to the convention of the Associated Billposters and Distributors of the United States and Canada are assembled here. With them are the members of the Southern Theatrical Managers' association and the Painters' League of America. Most of them arrived by train, but a large party traveled here from Columbus, O. the home of George Chesnell, president of the billposters, in motor cars.

FLIES OVER NEW YORK

Young Aeronaut Draws Gaze of Broadway Promoters.

New York, July 13.—Crowds along Broadway were interested spectators of a flight by Frank W. Goodale, a young aeronaut, who drove his dirigible balloon high above that thoroughfare from 116th to 124th street.

Starting from an amusement park across the Hudson in New Jersey, he rose 3,000 feet to avoid the effect of the cool air above the river, then descended down until he was about 500 feet over Broadway. The trip lasted fifty minutes.

NAGEL SHAKES UP DEPARTMENT.

Commerce and Labor Secretary Dismisses Many Employees.

NEW LIFE NEEDED, HE SAYS

Much Consternation Among Employees When Climax of "Efficiency Record" Investigation Is Reached—Many Reductions Made.

Washington, July 13.—The greatest shake-up that ever has occurred in the personnel of the department of commerce and labor took place when approximately one hundred employees were reduced and the resignations of about ten others accepted.

This action was taken by Secretary Nagel as the result of an investigation into the "efficiency record" of the employees of his department. The reductions were made, it is stated, because the employees were found to have "lacked the life" on the job, while those allowed to resign were found to be inefficient.

The secretary's determination to inject new life into the work of his department prompted this radical step. Further dismissals are to be made and resignations asked for, it was intimated, as soon as Secretary Nagel completes his examination of the efficiency report. Many of the clerks will receive promotion as a result of the changes.

For more than a month the employees of the department have been on the uneasy bench and the new developments naturally caused considerable consternation among them. Many of the employees made vain attempts to discuss their cases with Secretary Nagel in the hope of inducing him to reconsider his action as it applied to them.

Believing that there was considerable "dead timber" in his department, Secretary Nagel about six weeks ago instituted a searching investigation. He directed the various bureau chiefs to prepare for him a bona fide report upon the efficiency record of the employees under their jurisdiction from the highest salaried clerks down to messengers.

As a result of these reports it was found that about 3 to 10 per cent of the clerks were found to be deficient to a greater or lesser extent. A strange feature of the matter is that since the reports were made the efficiency record of the employees in the department has increased about 30 per cent.

RETURNS AFTER 20 YEARS

Rev. Mr. Taggart, Thought Dead Long Ago, Comes Back to Family.

Bloomington, Pa., July 13.—After more than twenty years of adventure, during which time he has wandered as far as Honolulu and supported himself by sign painting and paper hanging, Rev. John Taggart, a Methodist minister, who was thought to have been drowned in the Johnstown flood in 1889, returned to his home here.

Taggart found that his wife during his absence had married John Van Horn and has a seven-year-old son and fifteen-year-old daughter, but that Van Horn is in the Columbia county jail serving a sentence for a statutory offense. Mrs. Van Horn was overjoyed to see her former husband and Taggart will remove the family to another city. He gives as the reason for his long absence the "gossip of the townspeople and ill-health."

PLAN FOR ANNUAL CAMP

United Sportsmen's Association Will Hold First Meet at Columbia, Pa.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 13.—At a meeting of the directors of the United Sportsmen's association here it was decided to hold the first annual camp of the association at Columbia, Pa., Sept. 14 and 15.

State Fish Commissioner W. E. Meekins was named chairman of the committee to make arrangements. It was also decided to offer a club prize a silver cup to be competed for during the meet under rules to be made by the committee.

MINES CLOSE AWAITING MARKET.

Johnstown, Pa., July 13.—The Oak Ridge Coal and Coke company, operating in the vicinity of Hastings, Cambria county, has closed down its two large mines and 100 coke ovens until market conditions improve. The company says it cannot compete with West Virginia and Somerset county, Pa., which can mine coal much more cheaply.

TENDERFOOT WAS BADLY SCARED.

El Paso, Tex., July 13.—A tenderfoot, frightened by a fake attack upon the camp of a party of horsemen near Afton, N. M., was responsible for the spreading of a tale of wholesale murder by a band of Indians and Mexicans. Officers who hurried to the scene reported that the thing was a hoax.

$30,000 PAID FOR BROOD MARE.

Newmarket, England, July 13.—The sensational price of $30,000 was paid at Tattersalls for the brood mare Flair, the property of the late Sir Daniel Cooper. The previous record price for brood mares was $25,500 paid for Lat Lecha.

CATHOLIC EDUCATORS MEET

Welcomed in Boston With Address by Archbishop O'Connell.

Boston, July 13.—With mass in the cathedral and an address of welcome by Archbishop O'Connell, the Roman Catholic educators of the United States began today a three days' convention in this city.

ARCHBISHOP O'CONNELL.

The business meetings of the convention will be held in Boston colleges and in the Catholic Union clubhouses. The educators have been divided into three departments: the seminary, the college and the parochial schools, which include also the Catholic high schools.

Delegates from all parts of the country have assembled in Boston for the convention. One order of sisters, who conduct parochial schools, has sent nearly 200 delegates, while hundreds of priests and brothers, as well as delegates among the laymen are in attendance.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL MEETS.

Three Millions Represented in The Convention.

Seattle, July 13.—The sixth triennial session of the National Council of Women of the United States will begin here this evening with a reception to the officers, delegates and visitors to the council. The three days' business sessions of the council will begin tomorrow morning and close on the evening of July 16.

The council is composed of twenty-two national organizations, representing as many phases of thought and activity, such as the National Woman's Suffrage association, the National Woman's Relief society, National Woman's Relief corps, the Universal Peace union, the Council of Jewish Women, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, etc. There are also nine local councils, consisting of more than 200 federated societies. In all more than 3,000,000 women are represented. The council was organized in 1888 with Francis E. Willard as president and Susan B. Anthony as vice president at large. It represents organized effort along the lines of education, industry and philanthropy, as well as moral and government reform.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the present meeting are the following: Modern methods of child saving; peace and arbitration; woman's progress in education, political equality, divorce reform, laws concerning domestic relations and legal status of women and children.

Only a Sample.

A crotchety old farmer of Massachusetts had trouble with a neighbor as a result sought his counsel.

"I want you to write me a letter and tell him this. I don't want him to get no more of my corn," he declared firmly. "I know what I want to say, but I ain't got the latin to put it just right."

"What do you want to say?" the lawyer asked.

"Well, begin by telling him that he's the durndest, lyin'est, thiev'est, low downest skunk on earth and then work up."—Lippincott's.

Chicago, July 13.—Wheat for July delivery sold today at $1.20 1/4, a new high record mark for the season. Corn also was weak. Oats and provisions closed steady. July options closed: Wheat, $1.18 1/4; corn, 72 1/2 cents; oats, 48 1/2 cents.

The Man From Brodney's

CHAPTER XX.

THE CHARTER BALL.

THEY were not long to finding out what had happened to Saunders. After luncheon, while Brodney and the three ladies were completing the preparations for the entertainment, Miss Pelham appeared before Deppingham and Chase in the former's headquarters.

"Mr. Saunders has deceived me," she announced steadily. "I leave it to you if his attentions have not been most pronounced. Of course, if I wanted to, I could show you a transcript of everything he has said to me in the last couple of months. He didn't know it, but I managed to get most everything down in shorthand. I did it at the risk, too, your lordship, of being considered cold and unresponsive by him. It's most difficult to take conversation without the free use of your hands, I must say. But I've preserved in my own black and white every promise he made and—"

"I'm afraid it won't be good evidence," volunteered her lawyer. "It will have to be substantiated, my dear."

"Please don't call me 'my dear,' Mr. Britt. Never you mind about it; not being good evidence. Thomas Saunders won't enjoy hearing it read in court just the same. What I want to ask of you, Lord Deppingham, as a friend is to give Mr. Britt your deposition regarding Mr. Saunders' attitude toward me to the best of your knowledge and belief. I'll take it verbatim and put it into typewriting, free of charge. I don't see anything to laugh at, Mr. Chase," she cried, flushing prettily.

"My dear girl," he said, controlling himself. "I think you are misjudging the magnitude of a lover's quarrel. Don't you think it is rather a poor time to talk breach of promise with the guns of an enemy ready to take a pop at us at any moment?"

"It is as bad as all that," said Mr. Chase, who said severely. "Oh, my dear girl, begin at home, gentlemen, and I'm here to look out for myself. No one else will, let me tell you that. I want to get the deposition of every person in the chateau. They can be sworn to before Mr. Bowles, who is a magistrate, I'm told. He can marry people and—"

"By Jove!" exclaimed Deppingham suddenly. "Can't you join your souls?" "His manner changed as soon as that horrid little wife of Selim came to the chateau. I don't like the way she makes eyes at him, and I told him so this morning down in the storerooms. My, but he flew up! He said he'd be a man if he'd marry me."

"To use her haughty chief vigorously. The man smiled as they looked away. 'I intend to sue him for breach of promise,' she said thickly.

"What do you mean by 'bad as all that'?" he asked. "What do you mean by 'bad as all that'?" he asked. "What do you mean by 'bad as all that'?" he asked.

"I'll send for Saunders," said Deppingham sternly.

"Not while I'm here," she exclaimed. "Just as you like, Miss Pelham. I'll send for you after we've talked it over with Saunders. We can't afford a scandal in the chateau, don't you know?"

"No, I should think not," she said pointedly. Then she looked at Chase and winked, with a meaning nod at the unobtrusive Deppingham. Chase followed her into the hall.

"None of that, Miss Pelham," he said severely. "Saunders came in a few minutes later, nervous and uncomfortable."

"You sent for me, my lord," he said weakly.

"Sit down, Saunders. Your knees seem to be troubling you. Miss Pelham is going to sue you for breach of promise."

"Good Lord!" "What have you promised her?" "That I wouldn't marry her; that's all, sir," stammered Saunders. "She's got no right to presume, sir. Gentlemen always indulge in little affairs—flirtations, I might say, sir. It's most common. Of course I thought she'd understand."

"Don't you love her, Saunders?" "Oh, my lord, that's rather a pointed question. My word, it is, sir. There may have been a bit of—well, you know—between us, sir, but that's all, that's quite all, absurdly all, 'pon my soul."

"Saunders," said Britt solemnly, "I am her attorney. Be careful what you say to my presence."

THE CHARTER BALL.

pot at me because Selim's wife looked at me occasionally. Hang it all, sir, I can't help it if the ladies choose to look at me. Miss Pelham—Miss Pelham—was perfectly silly about it. 'Good Lord!' he groaned in recollection. 'It was a very trying scene she made, sir. More than ever it made me realize that I can't marry beneath me.'

"Saunders," said Lord Deppingham sternly, "she loves you. I don't understand why or how, but she does. Just because you have obtained an exalted social position at Hammersmith Bridge is no reason you should become a snob. I dare say she stands just as well at Brooklyn bridge, as you do at Hammersmith. She's a fine girl and would be an adornment to you such as Hammersmith could be proud of. If you want my candid opinion, Saunders, I think you're a silly ass."

"Do you really, my lord?" quite humbly. "Shall I prove it to you by every man on the place? Miss Pelham is quite good enough for any one of us. It'd be proud to have her as my wife. If I lived at Hammersmith Bridge—"

"You amaze me, sir." "She's a very pretty girl," volunteered Chase glibly.

"Oh, she could marry like a flash in New York," said Britt. "A dozen men I know of are crazy about her—good looking chaps too." The sarcasm escaped Saunders, who was fidgeting uncomfortably.

"Of course, you know, the breaking of the engagement—I should say the row—wasn't of my doing," he submitted, pulling at his finger joints nervously.

"I'm afraid it can't be patched up either," said Britt dolefully. "She's been insulted, you see."

"Saunders, we can't have our only romance marred by a breach of promise suit, can we? His lordship recollects. 'There has simply got to be a wedding in the end or the whole world will hate us. So far you have been our prize young lover. You are the undisputed hero. Don't spoil everything at the last moment, Saunders. Patch it up and let's have a wedding in the last chapter. You should not forget that it was you who advocated matrimony. Try it once for yourself, and if you like it, by Jove, we'll all come to your succeeding marriages and bless you, no matter how many wives you take unto yourself.'

Saunders, very much impressed by these confidences, bowed himself out of the room, followed by Britt, of whom he implored help in the effort to bring about a reconciliation. He was sorely distressed by Britt's apparent reluctance to compromise the case without mature deliberation.

The charity ball began at 10 o'clock, schedule time. Drusilla Browne, wearing the gown she had worn at the last ball, insisted that the invitation list should include the lady as well as the knight. She had her way, and as a result the bank employees, the French maids, Antoine and the two corporals of Rapp-Thorberg's Royal guard appeared on the floor in the grand march directly behind Mr. Britt, Mr. Saunders and Miss Pelham.

"One cannot discriminate at the charity ball," Drusilla stoutly maintained. "The hot polloi and the rift-rift always get in at home, so why not here?"

"I shall feel as if I were dancing with my greengrocer," lamented Lady Agnes. Later on, when the dancing was at its height, she exclaimed with all the fervor of a charmed imagination: "I feel as the Duchess de Whint's her-mance must have felt. Bobby, why she danced all night with her own ball, and then dressed for the guillotine instead of going to bed. We may all be shot in the morning."

The Indian fakirs and showmen gave a performance in the courtyard at midnight. They were followed by the Bedouin tumblers and the inspired Persians, who danced with frantic abandon. There was but one unfortunate accident. Mr. Rivers, formerly of the bank, got very tight and fell down the steps leading to the courtyard, breaking his left arm.

Lord Deppingham and Chase kept their heads. They saw to it that the watch over the grounds and about the chateau was strictly maintained. The former led the grand march with the princess. She was more ravishingly beautiful than ever. Rollingsworth Chase was dazzled. Something seemed to shoot coarsely, scoldingly into his ears. "Now do you realize the distance that lies between? She was made for kings and princes, not for such as you!"

He waited long before presenting himself in quest of the dance he hungered for so greedily—afraid of her! She greeted him with a new, brighter light in her eyes. A quiver of delight long in restraint came into her voice. He saw and felt the welcome in her manner. The blood surged to his head. He mumbled his request. Then, for the first time, he was clasping her angers, touching her waist, drawing her gently toward his heart. Once as they swept around the almost empty ball-room she looked up into his eyes. Neither had spoken. His lips parted suddenly, and his fingers closed upon hers. She saw the danger light in his eyes and knew the unuttered words that struggled to his lips and stopped there. She never knew why she did it, but she involuntarily shook her head before she lowered her eyes. He knew what she meant. His heart turned cold again, and the distance widened once more to the old proportions.

He left her with Bobby Browne and went out upon the cool, starlit balcony. There he gently cursed himself for a fool, a dolt, an idiot. (To be Continued.)

The Cokers played brilliant ball yesterday, save in spots, and won handily from Fairmont. Not only was the game one of the best played that has been seen here this season, but it was almost done in record time. After one hour and 25 minutes of play the last man in the ninth inning was called out. Only one game here has been played in quicker time this year, on June 4, when the Cokers beat Clarkburg 6 to 0.

Tom Silcox was master of the situation at all times yesterday. He fanned five men, four of them being the last man to face him in the last, and three times with men on the socks and scores threatening. On the other hand, with Dalley on third, Tom made a sky heave and only a brilliant stop by Makepeace prevented a wild pitch and a Fairmont tally.

Things broke just a bit bad in the opening inning when Parker opened the session with a bouncer to Gilligan. Both Silcox and Summers ran towards first to cover the sack and Gilligan held back to make a perfect throw. It so happened, however, that Parker beat them all to it.

Keller was there with the timely suicide and Dalley's bouncer took a high shoot as it reached Summers, the youngster being unable to recover in time to make the throw to first.

With two on, Dalley stole and Doggie Haught came up. Silcox took his measure, however, and he of the celine cognomen swatted vainly at the atmosphere three vicious swats and struck nothing. Even then the danger was not averted, for the Hunters had another chance. The chance was Elliott, however, who fanned innocently.

The Cokers got a tally in the opening sleaze. Barney Gilligan drew a pass from Taylor and Kid Hagan sacrificed. Myers went out on an in-field hit but a wild pitch enabled Barney to score. Like Francis went down via the Parker-Carmory short line.

In the third Fairmont got men on second and third and things looked blue. Parker opened the session with a clean single but Keller popped a fly to Makepeace while attempting to bunt. Dalley hit to Summers, forcing Parker at second but Haught sent a bouncer to Kid Hagan. The was one buried it high and wide, and the two men ambled around, Dalley to third and Haught to second. There were two out and Silcox fanned Elliott for a second time.

In the fourth inning the Cokers did some real healthy hitting. Hagan opened with a single and scored on like Francis' two bagger to center. Then Dave Calhoun smote the sphere a mighty swat and sent it over O'Malley and past Elliott for three sacks. Chip and Summers were easy outs. The fourth and last run came in the seventh inning. Chip Francis leading off with a single and scoring when Taylor fumbled Silcox's grounder. In the first half of this inning Fairmont looked bad, but not for long. Gates singled but Carmory drove into a double play, like Francis doing the speedy work on the play. O'Malley singled but Taylor grounded out to Gilligan. The score:

NELSON-WOLGAST SCRAP

They Will Get Together in Los Angeles Before Big Crowd.

Los Angeles, July 12.—One of the biggest crowds that has ever seen a fight in this city is expected to gather tonight at the entertainment to be provided by Battling Nelson, lightweight champion of the world, and Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee. The city is filled with Elks, among whom are many fight lovers, and they are expected to make the ringside look like a lodge session in full blast.

How much of the ten round battle that is scheduled they will see is uncertain. Nelson declares that the fight will not go the limit, and many are inclined to agree with him. Wolgast is, however, a husky lad, in good shape and may make the champion extend himself. It is said that Nelson will receive $5,500 for his half hour's work, while Wolgast will be paid $1,500.

tary of artillery. He later reviewed all state and United States troops in camp, witnessed a military funeral and met a former governor of another state. The latter was Robert B. Glenn, who recently retired from the chief magistracy of North Carolina and who delivered a lecture to the Pennsylvania chautauqua. Ex-Governor Glenn stood with Governor Stuart at the brigade review.

The funeral was that of W. P. McAndrew of Scranton, who died of peritonitis. He came to camp critically ill. Captain J. H. Odell, chaplain of the Thirtieth regiment, conducted services and Company C of the same regiment formed an escort to the station.
